

TRiBal TRIATHLON EVENTS

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The following terms and conditions of entry apply to all participants who register to take part in an event organized by TRiBal Triathlon. In the terms and conditions participants will be referred to as 'you' and the event organiser will be referred to as 'TRiBal Triathlon'. TRiBal Triathlon is owned and operated by Vobster Diving Ltd (Registered No. in the UK 06584948).

1. By registering and entering in the event you are agreeing to be bound by these terms and conditions.
2. All participants must be above the age of 16 years on the day of the event for senior races.
3. You are responsible for reading the details and descriptions regarding the event a) displayed at the point of registration. b) any information or updates that may be sent to you by TRiBal Triathlon prior to the event and c) any race information and/or event/safety briefings provided at the race registration/briefings, and that you clearly understand what ability is required and what is entailed in participating in the event.
4. Registration fees must be paid in full at the time of registration – please refer to our refund/cancellation policy with regard to race withdrawals
5. If any details provided by you on your registration form change you must notify TRiBal Triathlon immediately and in writing by emailing to info@vobster.com
6. Registration for events is not transferable and TRiBal Triathlon reserve the right to cancel your participation in the event that any information provided by you is found to be inaccurate/false in any way.
7. You will be emailed detailed race information, instructions and race packs in advance of the event that you have entered.
8. Please note that all arrangements for the event, including the venue, date, course, distances and programme may be subject to change. TRiBal Triathlon will do everything in its power to minimize changes to the advertised event format, and other than safety changes, such changes will be notified to participants 2 weeks prior to the event date. Event day changes will only be made by the event Director in circumstances that affect the safety of the participants, the event or in exceptional circumstances.
9. You are responsible for ensuring that you have taken your own and appropriate medical advice, and that you are medically fit and healthy and have undertaken appropriate and adequate training and preparation to participate in the event.
10. You are responsible for taking out suitable personal insurance cover for your participation in the event. We recommend participants become full members of their National Triathlon Association and/or Open Water Swimming Association which will provide both training and racing insurance cover www.britishtriathlon.org. Proof of insurance (such as your BTF membership card) will be required when you sign in to the event. If you do not have proof of insurance you will be required to purchase day membership to take part in the event.
11. You will ensure that you are medically fit (seeking professional medical advice if required) and have undergone sufficient training for the events you are undertaking. You must also inform the event organiser if you do not feel that you are fit on the day.
12. In entering an open water swim event, you must have achieved a suitable level of open water swim competence, and be able to swim a distance greater than that of the event you have entered.
13. In entering a run event, or event that contains a run section, you are responsible for running in a manner that is appropriate for your ability and is safe both to you, other competitors and other road/course users (no headphones, ipods, mobile phones may be used 'in-the-field of play').
14. In entering a bike event, or event that contains a bike section, you are required to ensure that you are a) wearing a recognised and undamaged safety standard bike helmet b) riding a bike that meets National/International Triathlon Rule specifications, is well maintained, and fit for purpose c) ride in a manner that is appropriate for your ability and is safe both to you, other competitors and other road/course users and in full compliance to the UK Highway Code and laws of the road.
15. You must read, fully understand, and abide by any relevant Governing Body, Venue and Event rules and regulations that effect the event. Breaches of such rules and regulations are likely to lead to sanctions, penalties and potential disqualification and withdrawal from the event.
16. You must show respect and courtesy towards other participants, spectators, members of the public and the Event Organisers/Officials at all times. If you behave in any manner which is, in the Event Organiser's opinion, inappropriate or a risk to the safety of any participant, spectator or anyone else in attendance at the event or venue, this may result in you being disqualified from the event and removed from the venue.
17. You are responsible for the safe keeping of your personal possessions and those of any spectators that you may bring to the event. Personal possessions left unattended at the venue in any facilities provided or otherwise are left entirely at your own risk. You are advised not to bring valuable items to events.
18. TRiBal Triathlon is not responsible for any third party organizations or suppliers that may provide other services at the event.
19. If the event has to be postponed for any reason, the Event Organiser will endeavour to arrange an alternative event, and you will be notified of the new event date and venue of the rearranged event. No refund will be given if you do not wish to participate in the rearranged event. Accommodation fees will not be refunded if the event is re-scheduled.
20. In exceptional circumstances the event has to be cancelled, you may receive a partial refund of your registration fee to be determined based on the staging costs incurred to that point.
21. If access to the published course is restricted for any reason an alternative course will be used. Likewise, in the unlikely event that the course or parts of the course are deemed unsafe on the day of the event, the Event Organisers may use an alternative course or change the event format in the interest of participant safety.
22. In registering for the event, you agree to photographs, video and other media recording being taken at the event and that any images of you may be used by the Event Organiser in any media regarding the event and to market and advertise the event or any other similar events run by TRiBal Triathlon.
23. By registering you are agreeing to any data provided being used by the Event Organiser to contact you regarding this event and other events within their programme. No personal details or information will be passed on to any third party, except those required by law, or to facilitate extra services rendered, such as insurance purchased at the event.

Note: If you need assistance in reading and understanding these terms and conditions or if you have any related questions please contact us.
